Diolch yn fawr for your ministry!

Familiar Face Returns to Diocese

We are pleased to announce that a familiar face will be returning to the Diocese.

Fr Ross Maidment will be joining us from Winchester College, where he has served as College Chaplain and Philosophy and Religious Studies Don.

Announcing the appointment, the Rt Revd Cherry Vann, Bishop of Monmouth, said: "Ross is no stranger to the Diocese having served his curacy here and it is good to be welcoming him back."

"His energy and enthusiasm together with his immense gifts and skills, not least in schools and with young people, will be invaluable in the Mountain and Marsh Ministry Area."

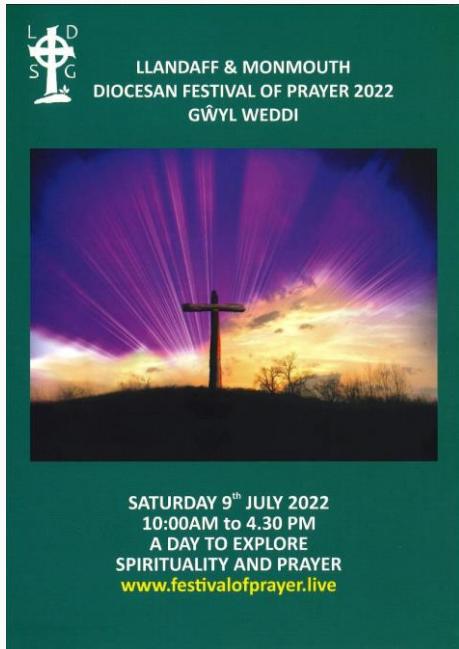

"I look forward to licensing him as the new MA is legally formed and commissioned early in the autumn."

During his time in Monmouth, and shortly after being ordained priest, Ross was followed by the BBC for a 'fly on the wall series' Young, Welsh, and Pretty Religious.

Ross has degrees in Theology from Oxford and Cardiff and says his research is driven by a desire to widen participation in contemporary theological dialogue.

Diocesan Vision

Over the last couple of weeks we have shared five films which reflect some of the conversations and discussions taking place as we develop our Diocesan Vision together.

The Vision is based on the Five Marks of Mission and the films show clergy and laity from across our diocese discussing the key themes of discipleship, stewardship, environment, equality and diversity, and social justice.

The films reflect how people are already thinking of ways in which these themes can be developed across each of our Ministry Areas.

If you missed the videos you can catch up on our YouTube channel here.

Remembering Srebrenica

In the week 4th – 11th July, the world is invited to remember Srebrenica and the genocide that took place there between 1992 and 1995. Described by the United Nations as ‘the worst crime on European soil since the Second World war’, the killing of 100,000 Muslims and the genocidal rape of 50,000 women was a planned and systematic attempt to eradicate a whole people and create a ‘Greater Serbia’. What happened then, and the ideology behind it, is frighteningly similar to what is happening now in Ukraine.

Remembering atrocities such as Srebrenica is important for those who died and those who continue to suffer trauma and grief. But remembering also confronts us with what humanity is capable of and galvanises us to do all we can to combat hatred, violence and aggression wherever we see it so that such atrocities never happen again. You can find more information about Remembering Srebrenica here at this link <https://srebrenica.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/2022/05/2022-Faith-Resources-Church-1.pdf> together with stories, prayers and a Pledge that we can use ourselves or use in an act of worship. ‘May grievance become hope, may revenge become justice, may mothers’ tears become prayers, that Srebrenica never happens again to no one, no where.’

Praying for the Lambeth Conference

The Lambeth Conference is a meeting of all the Bishops of the worldwide Anglican Communion and has been taking place roughly every 10 years since 1867. This year will be convened and hosted once again by the Archbishop of Canterbury between 26th July and 8th August.

I am writing to ask for your prayers over the coming weeks as the Anglican bishops from Wales and over 160 other countries prepare to gather for retreat and prayer, for bible study on the First Letter of Peter and for mutual support and encouragement. The following is from The Brotherhood of St Gregory in the Episcopal Church of the USA. Please use it in your daily prayers.

O God, by your grace and Spirit you have raised up witnesses and servants in many lands and cultures: pour out your blessing upon the churches and provinces of the Anglican Communion and upon their leaders as they prepare to gather for fellowship in the Lambeth Conference, that their diversity may enrich their common witness and service to the honor and glory of your name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

"Judges will also be choosing the UK's Church of the Year, a very special award which will go to a church that makes an outstanding difference to both the congregation and also the wider local community."

"We're really excited to be celebrating the UK's amazing churches and the people who care for them and look forward to entries from all parts of the UK."

"Our special thanks to our partners, the Ecclesiastical Architects & Surveyors Association, Ecclesiastical Insurance, the Marsh Charitable Trust, the Mercers Company and the Pilgrim Trust for their support of the 2022 National Church Awards."

The Headley Trust Grant Scheme

The Headley Trust, one of the Sainsbury Family Charitable Trusts, has a budget devoted to the restoration and repair of fine medieval (or earlier) parish churches in the Dioceses of England and Wales which meet the following criteria:

- Pre-16th century of architectural merit, listed as Grade I, II* or II;

- Churches in rural, undeveloped, sparsely populated, less prosperous areas (with a population up to 2,500 people). In some circumstances a larger population may be considered;
- Historic chapels or chantry chapels are not normally funded.
- As a general rule, churches with Victorian restoration work will be considered if the church has retained original character and quality. The church must remain in use as a regular place of worship.

If your church meets the above criteria and you are planning works towards conservation, preservation and repairs to the fabric of the church or provision or improvement to toilet or toilet and kitchen facilities which will start after November 2022 please get in touch with Libby Morgan-Owen, 07508 801511, libbymorganowen@churchinwales.org.uk to see if you may be eligible to apply for a Headley Trust grant.
